This property is the definition of a diamond in the rough. Here is a rare chance to transform a solid structure on a beautiful lot into the home or investment of your dreams. Nestled on a spacious, well situated parcel, this home offers exceptional potential for renovation, expansion or a full redesign. The existing layout provides a strong foundation, but the home is ready for someone with vision. Whether you're an investor seeking your next project or a homeowner eager to customize a space from the ground up, this property delivers the perfect canvas. The lot features mature trees, generous yard space and a peaceful setting that's increasingly hard to find. With the right updates, this home could become a standout showpiece. Located close to parks, lakes, downtown Winter Garden and offers quick access to State Road 429. If you're looking for a project with character and location, this is the opportunity you don't want to miss.
